

Boynton To Seek Controller Post; Now 6 Candidates

Chief Dep. County Controller Ira A. (Bill) Boynton Tuesday filed application for the position of county controller to fill the unexpired term of Thomas J. Kane, who died Friday.

Mrs. Ethel M. Kane, widow of Mr. Kane, earlier had filed application for the job in telegraphic messages to individual members of the board of supervisors.

The supervisors, who had planned to meet Tuesday to appoint a successor to Mr. Kane, will wait until the regular meeting of the board next Tuesday upon advice of Dist. Atty. Gilbert D. Ferrell. Ferrell informed Chmn. Fred E. Beer that to call a special meeting to make an appointment, each member of the board would have to be given a five days' notice. This would make it impossible to hold the meeting until Saturday, so it was believed best to wait until the regular meeting.

Six prospects are now in the field for the controller post. Francis J. Robinson, who for 14 years was probation officer of San Mateo County and is now employed by a title firm here, announced Tuesday that he would make application for the job unless it were promised to Mrs. Kane.

Beer is reported to be interested in taking the job, but he has voiced no comment on whether he will be an applicant. He would have to resign from the board of supervisors before the vote could be taken.

A report that Beer could not legally accept the position appeared unfounded today, when Asst. Dist.

Lugosi, Keith Star at Curran

Bela Lugosi and Ian Keith co-star with a New York cast in the drama "No Traveler Returns," the next road touring attraction booked for the Curran, San Francisco, and opened a two weeks' run Monday.

Ralph Kutsch and Leslie Thomas are the producers of "No Traveler Returns" which was authored by Richard Goddard who spent several years in India gathering background data for his play.

"No Traveler Returns" is a dramatic and exciting tale of murder, plots and torrid loves under the spell of unexplained powers. The locale of the play is Assam, India and concerns a strange obsession overpowering a person who delves too deeply into Oriental intrigue and weird mysteries.

Bela Lugosi is perfectly cast as Bhart Singh, a sinister and evil genius whose uncanny powers cast strange spells over his helpless victims. Ian Keith portrays an English army doctor who has returned to India to resume his duties and also carry on his studies of native superstitions.

During the two weeks' engagement of "No Traveler Returns" at the Curran, performances will be presented every night including Sundays. Matinees are scheduled for Wednesday and Saturday of the first week, and Saturday and Sunday of the second and final week.

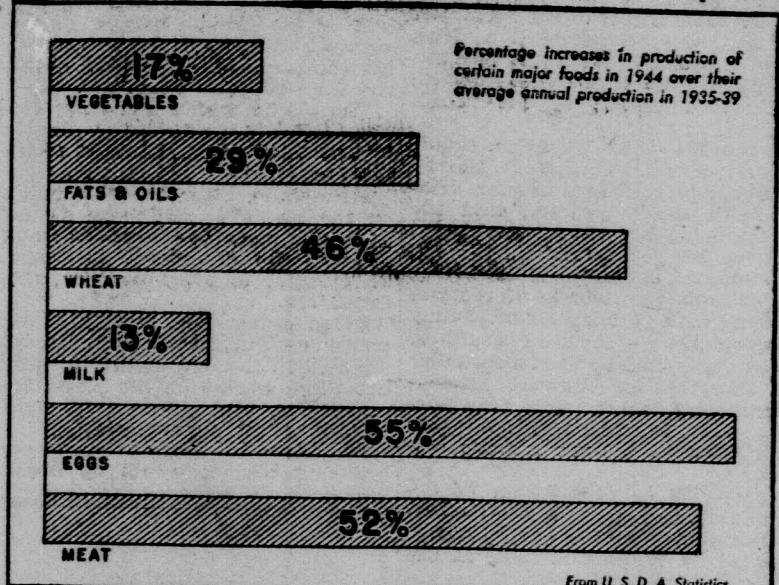

Lt. Whitmore Wins Oak Leaf Cluster

First Lt. Harold E. Whitmore, a P-51 Mustang fighter pilot with the Eighth Air Force in England, has been awarded a fourth Oak Leaf Cluster to his Air Medal for "meritorious achievement in aerial combat over Germany," his headquarters announced today.

Whitmore, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Whitmore of 49 Birch St., scored his first victory over the Luftwaffe after chasing a German Messerschmitt 109 fighter in a 600-mile-per-hour dive.

Enlisting in the AAF in July, 1942, he received his wings and commission in December, 1943. Last August, after joining the veteran 36th Fighter Group, he was promoted to first lieutenant.

Record Wartime Food Production Prompts High School Poster Project

The great importance of food in the war effort and in the postwar days ahead has suggested the theme for a poster contest for high school students, according to the contest announcement just received by art and home economics teachers of this city. Awards will be in the form of war bonds.

The vital part being played by food in these critical times is reflected in the unprecedented demands and record-breaking production, it is pointed out by the national poster contest committee of Chicago. In 1944, production of six major foods showed increases ranging from 13 to 55 per cent over the average for the prewar period — 1935-39.

James H. Whitehead, Redwood City agent for Southern Pacific, announced today that the freight and passenger depots here have been separated. The freight office, formerly located in the passenger depot, has been moved to a newly constructed office in the freight warehouse on Perry St., across Broadway from the depot.

The separation, Whitehead explained, provides additional office space for the increasing volume of business.

Peninsulans Win Army Promotions

A Belmont captain and two Menlo Park WACs have been promoted by the army, it was announced today. Capt. William S. Keil of the army air corps is now a major and 2nd Lt. Adelaide P. Brady and Mabel E. Kessing have been advanced to first lieutenants.

Lieutenant Kessing was one of the first women in this area to join the WACs in July, 1942. After taking basic training at Fort Des Moines, she was appointed to the administrative specialist faculty of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps in January, 1943. Following her commission as a third officer, the WAAC equivalent of a second lieutenant, she taught company administration at Fort Des Moines, including all phases of record keeping work of army companies.

She is a graduate of the University of California and was doing research work on Boswell for a master's degree in Eighteenth Century Literature when she joined the WAAC. A brother, John Kessing, is in the air corps. Her parents reside at 280 Arlington Way, Menlo Park, when they lived in that town.

Lieutenant Brady became a member of the Women's Army Corps over two years ago. She was a civilian employee at Fort Mason, engaged in physiotherapy work when she joined the army. Mrs. Brady, whose husband is Austin E. Brady, formerly of Palo Alto, received her commission at Fort Mason.

Jewel M. Nelson Is Commissioned

Jewel M. Nelson of Rt. 1, Box 207, Redwood City, recently commissioned a second lieutenant in the U. S. Army Nurse Corps, has been ordered to active duty and will report to Madigan General Hospital, Tacoma, Wash., for basic training, it was announced today.

Daniel Sisson Wins Promotion

Before being transferred from West Palm Beach, Fla., to Indianapolis, Ind., Daniel W. Sisson, son of Mrs. A. B. Sisson of 28 Bellevue Ave., Atherton, was promoted to the grade of staff sergeant.

Sisson was stationed at the headquarters of the Caribbean Division, Air Transport Command, for more than a year before being transferred to his new station. A member of the Sequoia High School Class of 1936, he attended Stanford University following his graduation.

After graduating from Stanford in 1940, he attended the Harvard Business School in Cambridge, Mass., and was employed by the Douglas Aircraft Corp. at the time of his entry into the army in March, 1943.

His brother, PFC John Sisson, is currently hospitalized in England, having been wounded in Belgium in December. He has been overseas for 30 months.

Negro Arrested On Assault Charge

For allegedly striking another Negro over the head with a 32-inch piece of 2-by-4 plank, John M. Jones, 32-year-old Palo Alto janitor, was booked on a charge of assault and battery by Redwood City police Sunday night.

Jones, whom police said resides at 733 Ramona St., Palo Alto, assaulted Perry Graham, 49-year-old, by striking him over the head with a 32-inch piece of 2-by-4 plank, while the latter was sitting in his automobile at Willow St. and El Camino Real after 10 o'clock.

Graham resides at 542 Emerson St., Palo Alto, police said.

KEEP YOUR RED CROSS AT HIS SIDE!

This year, the appeal for funds is the most critically important in the history of the American Red Cross. If you've got a man at war...if you know a man in service...you'll know why we must keep the Red Cross at his side.

THIS IS YOUR WAR: A few years back they were just boys...today they are your fighting men! Homesick men. Lonely men. Wounded men. They all need the helping hand of the Red Cross.

ASK THE BOYS: Our soldiers and sailors almost worship the Red Cross for work done by field directors and home service workers.

ASK YOURSELF: Am I giving all I can to help save lives or bring cheer and comfort. Open wide your heart and your pocketbook now.

Mayor Fisher Retains Menlo Park Office

Donald Fisher Tuesday night received the approval of his fellow councilmen to retain his office in Menlo Park despite his temporary residence in San Mateo.

City Atty. James O'Keefe stated that it was his opinion that Mayor Fisher would be able to maintain his office if the mayor's intentions of living out of the city limits were of a temporary nature and that he retains his registration in Menlo Park.

Mayor Fisher said the factor of housing and transportation was the reason for his living in San Mateo at the present time. He assured the council that he would take up residence in Menlo Park as soon as possible.

A letter was read to the council from James E. Cooper, president of the Chamber of Commerce. Cooper said:

"Our community is now faced with a dire lack of both permanent housing and emergency shelter. This condition emanates from the presence of Dibble Hospital in our midst."

"To cope with this serious problem, a joint committee of the Menlo Park Lions Club and the Chamber of Commerce has met to discuss ways and means of meeting this situation."

"It is our opinion that the promotion of such development is the responsibility of the city council. We earnestly request that a city-wide representative committee be established at the direction of the mayor."

"We urge immediate action as the problem is increasing in magnitude daily."

Mayor Fisher also proposed that steps be taken to find property in the unrestricted areas of the district to build 100 homes of a permanent nature to help relieve the housing situation.

Councilman Lloyd Neumann proposed that City Physician Dr. R. J. Gerlough be dismissed. Councilman Neumann pointed out that all of Dr. Gerlough's services to the city were with the school children and he should be placed on the payroll of the school board.

Mead Flays Bayshore Plan

Dispelling current rumors to the effect that a realignment of the proposed Bayshore Freeway would cut through the Main St. business section in Redwood City, City Mgr. Robert W. Mead today declared he had received no word from the State Highway Dept. concerning any changes in the plans for the super-highway.

Pointing out that the city council had been presented with the original plans more than a year ago when the highway department requested approval of the freeway's location, Manager Mead said it was unlikely that any change might now be made without the city's first being notified by the state.

The freeway, which has received local approval in the form of a resolution passed by the council, will, in general, follow the present Bayshore Hwy. east of Redwood City, with plans calling for the elimination of curves.

Approach to the freeway from Redwood City is contemplated between Jefferson Ave and Main St. "The approach will be the making of Main St. in my estimation," Mead said today, declaring that increased traffic in the district will raise its value as a business district.

Troop 160 — Ray Griffin was named to assist Den 2 as den chief on a test passing and drill were other features of the meeting, under the direction of E. H. George, scoutmaster. Twenty-eight attended.

Makes Bombing Run Alone Despite Crippled Plane

For choosing to make an individual run over a target in Austria after his plane, crippled by a feathered engine, was unable to keep up with the formation of B-17s, 1st Lt. Lloyd J. Douglas of Menlo Park has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Douglas of 1030 College Ave., learned today.

The citation which accompanied the award states that on Dec. 2, 1944, Douglas flew as an element leader on a mission to bomb the North Oil Refineries at Blechhammer, Germany.

During the period of the 15th Air Force unit's take-off in Italy, an accident on the field blocked the half of the group's complement of planes had become airborne, delaying the aircraft in Douglas' squadron for nearly an hour.

The planes which had completed their take-off proceeded as planned to the wing rendezvous, the citation continues.

Meanwhile, after the obstruction on the taxi strip had been cleared away, the squadron in which Douglas was flying took-off and made an attempt to overtake the group formation.

In so doing, the unusually high power setting on all the aircraft resulted in the over-taking of the group three engines on his plane and an oil line broke, forcing Douglas to feather it immediately.

Now deep in enemy territory and realizing that it would be impossible for him to hold his position in the formation even if he were to salvo his bomb load, Douglas chose to make an individual run on a target of opportunity.

Near the city of Gyor, Austria, the Menlo Park pilot took his crippled aircraft through a bomb run on a railroad leading into the city, and in spite of a barrage of anti-aircraft fire, which damaged the plane, made a successful run. Bomb strike photographs later showed several close hits on a locomotive and cars on the tracks.

He proceeded home alone, making contact with a fighter escort en route, and brought his damaged plane to a safe landing on three engines.

"The sound judgment and determination of purpose which Lieutenant Douglas exhibited in making this sortie a conspicuous success have been uniformly evident all through a combat career of 42 combat missions, 26 sorties, and 229 operational combat hours," his citation declared.

A graduate of Sequoia High School, Douglas received his commission at Columbus, Miss., in January, 1944, and went overseas last Fall.

Wealthy Peninsula Woman Succumbs

Mrs. Marguerite O'Brien, 548 Ravenscourt Rd., Hillsborough, widow of the late E. M. O'Brien, Canadian capitalist, dropped dead Tuesday night in the driveway of a neighboring home, while walking with her pet dog.

A teen age boy first saw the body about 7:40 p.m. and reported to the Hillsborough police.

Mrs. O'Brien's physician, Dr. B. H. Page who had consulted with Mrs. O'Brien less than three hours earlier, was on duty at the Mills Memorial Hospital and pronounced the woman dead on arrival.

Mrs. O'Brien, about 60, was a native of Montreal, Canada. She had no children, and according to Coroner William F. Crosby, affairs of the estate are being handled by the American Trust Co. of San Francisco.

It was estimated that Mrs. O'Brien leaves an estate of some $2,000,000.

Willow Road School Plans Enlargement

Three rooms will be added to the new Willow Rd. school just as soon as priorities and materials can be obtained, the Ravenswood School Board decided at a special open meeting held Monday afternoon to find some means of relieving overcrowding at the Ravenswood building.

Roy Liddicoat, superintendent, told the board that three classes are forced to meet in other parts of the building, having no classrooms available.

The board instructed its architect, Arthur Janssen of Atherton, to prepare plans for the new three-room unit and apply for priorities at once. He is expected to report at the regular meeting of the trustees Mar. 12.

The proposed addition is designed to meet only the present urgent need, not taking the anticipated future growth of the community into consideration.

Those present at yesterday's meeting, held in the new four-room Willow Rd. school, were Chmn. T. A. Callahan, Mrs. Paul Boyer and Mal Coombs, board members; John Cleese, former member of the board and member of the planning committee of the Citizens Service League of the community; Liddicoat, and Janssen.

News of Commuters

BY JOE CABOOSE

How many of us are aware that we are "witnesses to history in the making"? The most glorious chapters of all American history are being written today, literally — by means of radio and wireless photography — before our very eyes! Yes, we are witnesses to history, but how many of us are truly capable of evaluating the historical import of these momentous events?

We have often toyed with the thought of what our reactions would have been had we been present at Gettysburg when Abraham Lincoln delivered his immortal address. How many of those actually present were conscious that they were witnesses to one of the greatest events in history? How many of us today fully appreciate the heroic magnificence of our Marines at Iwo Jima, MacArthur's liberation of the Philippines, and the daily sacrifices of our men on the frozen fronts in Europe, that America and the world might remain free?

As the final savage chapters of this awful war are being fought,

Key punch Operator Wins Merit Award

T/S Stanley G. Karney, key punch operator in the 65th Machine Records Unit at Eighth Air Force Headquarters, now wears the Meritorious Service Unit insignia for "superior performance of duty" in May and June, 1944.

The award was presented to the unit by Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle.

Despite the tremendous expansion of the Eighth Air Force before and during the invasion of France, the machine records unit "accomplished a vast improvement in personnel records," the citation stated. "Discrepancies, corrections, and roster errors were reduced by approximately 50 per cent."

The 65th, which maintains records of all personnel of the Eighth Air Force, answers personnel questions for all headquarters and handles special research problems. A graduate of Sequoia High School in 1942, Karney was employed as a tabulating machine operator for the National Motor Bearing Co. in Redwood City before entering the army June 15, 1943. The 19-year-old soldier went overseas in November, 1943, following training at the adjacent general school at Fort Washington, Md.

American casualties are mounting at an appalling rate. The need for blood plasma and all other aids and appurtenances for the care of the wounded will be in great demand during the next few months and throughout the whole of this year. The 1945 campaign to raise funds for the American Red Cross begins this week. Are you — a current witness to the glorious but tragic chapters of American history now being written — going to need any special urging to give generously to this worthy cause? We think not.

Remember, the Red Cross is the one ministering agency of mercy that goes directly to the fox hole and behind enemy lines . . . to aid and comfort your loved ones. Almost 90 per cent of all funds collected are spent directly for services to the armed forces. You commuters are respectfully asked to give at least half of your total contribution to the local committee in Redwood City.

The Kiwanis dinner to the Commuters' softball team at Grace and Pierre's last Wednesday night was a very proper affair, with no fast curves being thrown by anybody. This was due, no doubt, to the fact that Mr. Clarence Argo and Joe Caboose were present to keep order and lend dignity and respectability to the party. Pres. Ferris Miles of the K's presided, with Pres. Stan Perkins of the C's lending an occasional "assist." No one was "thrown out!"

This affair was a sort of preliminary of "warm up" to the big joint meeting of the membership of both clubs, to be held at the Woman's Club, Thursday, Mar. 8. This will be a dinner meeting at which the Kiwanis have promised to furnish the guest speaker, and the Commuters will provide the entertainment. The respective house committees have been working together, and from what we hear via the grapevine it promises to be quite an affair. Plans are being made for an attendance of 100 . . . 55 Commuters and 45 Kiwanis.

From the "Office Economist" we copy some rules that were posted in the year 1880 in an Amboy, Ill., store operated by the founders of what is now Carson Pirie Scott & Co., of Chicago.

1. Store must be open from 6 a.m. to 9 p.m. the year round;
2. Store must be swept; counters, shelves and showcases dusted; lamps trimmed and filled and chimneys cleaned; a pail of water and a bucket of coal brought in before breakfast. (If there is time to do so, attend to customers who call.)

3. The employee who is in the habit of smoking Spanish cigars, being shaved at the barbers, going to dances and other places of amusement will assuredly give his employer reason to be suspicious of his integrity and honesty.

4. Each employee must pay not less than $5 per year to the church, and must attend Sunday School regularly.

5. Men employees are given one evening a week for courting, two if they go to prayer meeting.

6. After 14 hours in the store, the leisure hours should be spent for the most part in reading.

That, children, is what your parents mean when they talk about "the good old days!" Can you imagine some sanctimonious old hypocrite of the vintage of 1880 trying to tell a modern junior what to do with his "leisure" time after spending 14 hours in a sweat shop?

Early last week a rock was hurled through a window of the speeding Redwood City Commuters special which leaves the city at 5:21 p.m. The missile was heaved by someone just below the depot at South San Francisco, and it missed a commuter by inches. The glass was shattered but fortunately the flying glass did not cut anyone. What impulse would prompt anyone to do such a vicious trick? We can't think of anything more cowardly and despicable.

Death laid a heavy hand on Redwood City last week when it took from our midst two of our best known and best loved citizens. In the passing of Tom Kane and Elmer Hurrell the city and county lost two public-spirited and devoted men who had contributed much to the welfare of this community. They will be missed and mourned by all who knew them. To the bereaved members of their respective families we extend our deepest sympathy. May the kindly souls of Tom Kane and Elmer Hurrell rest in peace.

Mead Returns From Meeting

City Mgr. Robert W. Mead returned to his offices in the Redwood City Hall Monday after attending a three-day conference of California city managers held in Los Angeles last week.

Principal discussions at the meeting, concerned postwar works, he said.

Redwood City was reported at the conference to be the only California city whose postwar program had already been approved by the voters and was "ready to go" when

How to add glamour to cabbage, onions, carrots and potatoes . . .

FRENCH STYLE CABBAGE
Combine cooked chopped cabbage, small amount of milk and a beaten egg. Brown in a solid cake in a little hot shortening or drippings in a frying pan.

COUNTRY STYLE SMOTHERED CABBAGE
Cook chopped cabbage in drippings with salt, pepper and small amount of milk until tender, stirring occasionally to prevent burning.

QUICK FRENCH ONION SOUP
Cook sliced onions in a small amount of shortening or drippings until limp but not brown. Add about 1 cup water and 1 or 2 chicken or beef bouillon cubes per serving; salt and pepper to taste. Serve with cheese toast or grated cheese sprinkled on top of each bowl of soup.

CARROTS LYONNAISE
Brown sliced cooked carrots, a little chopped onion, salt and pepper in hot butter or shortening. (Cooked the same as Lyonnaise Potatoes.)

TOASTED BAKED POTATOES
Pare potatoes, brush with melted drippings. Roll potatoes in mixture of crumbs, salt and pepper, then in beaten egg, then again in the crumb mixture. Bake in a covered casserole in a moderately hot oven (400° F.) for about 1 hour or until done.

BAKED MASHED SQUASH
Steam unpeeled pieces of winter squash until tender, scrape from shell, mash, season with salt, pepper and add enough milk to make the same consistency as mashed potatoes. Put into a baking dish, dot with butter or margarine, sprinkle with brown sugar and chopped nuts, if desired. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) until heated through and browned on top. This is a good way to use leftover squash or plan to cook enough at one time to serve the second time in this way.

J-M Smokestack By Jim Asbestos

You work for Johns-Manville—the roofing people? Roofing, your eye! Roofing AND 1200 other products! Right now we're mostly war production!

Uncle Sam Says We're "E"-ssential

A lot of folks still think of Johns-Manville as just a "roofing company." That's how we got our first rep, and it sticks that way in people's minds.

Johns-Manville (and incidentally, do people mess up the pronunciation of our name! . . . they call us everything from John Mansville to James Mansfield!) today still makes roofing and darned good roofing! But we also make about 1,200 other good products from brake linings to plasma strainers.

And right this minute J-M production is mostly important war stuff. If you work at J-M it's almost a cinch you're a war worker. Even if you make something that looks like peace production, it's a safe bet it goes to war, straight or indirectly.

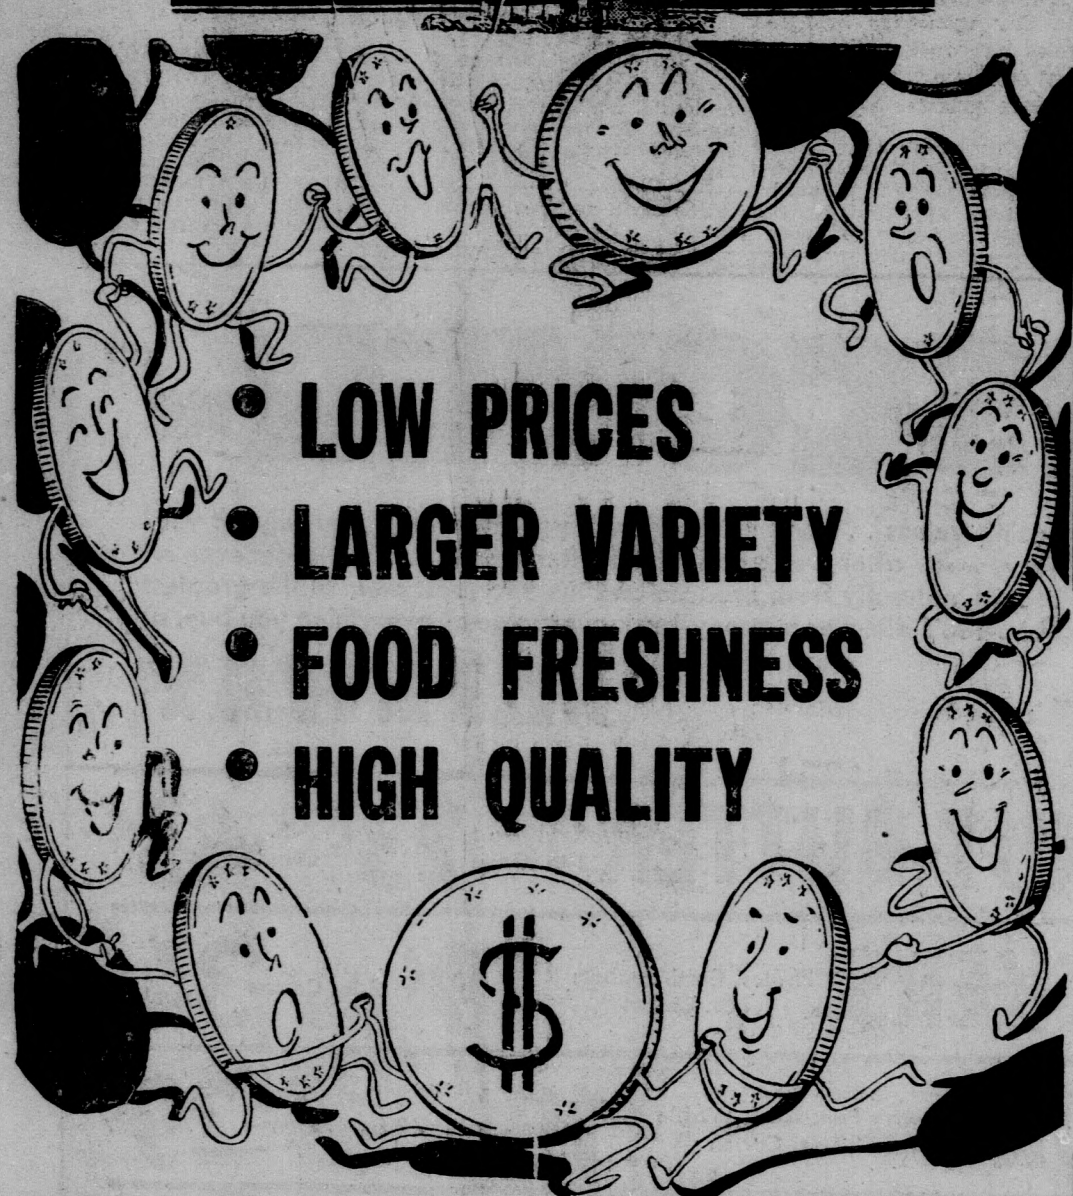

For instance, maybe gaskets or packings for airplanes or tanks, or partitions for ships, insulations for ships or synthetic rubber plants or high octane gasoline plants, or ingredients for camouflage paints, or asbestos textiles for naval and other war uses. Yes, even bombs and shells, in the Kansas Ordnance Plant.

Uncle Sam has given three of our plants a bunch of "E's" as evidence we're "E"-ssential.

The Johns-Manville factory is a good place to work in wartime or peacetime.
